

Dear Parents and Carers,
Thank-you to the Year 3 parents and family who joined us in the hall on Monday afternoon to celebrate Mass with Father Michael. It was a lovely, prayerful service. I look forward to seeing you at Academic Review Day on Friday 15th July. You have an invitation letter in your child's bag today.
Our prayers and thoughts are with Father Terry, whose mother sadly passed away last week,
Best wishes,
Mrs Smith (Head of School)

Go shine
in the world!

St Eugene's Primary School Newsletter

Friday 1st July 2016

Year 2 had an exciting afternoon meeting weird and wonderful creatures from Australia last week. They learnt lots about the different animals and were very calm and very brave! Well done Year 2!

The tarantula felt really tickly because of its hairy legs! William

I held the skink, it was soft and slimy. Maya

Talk topic...

Every week a thought provoking question is displayed in the library. The children have the opportunity to think about the question and pin up their answer or suggestion.

You might like to talk to your child about our question.

This week the talk topic was...

What is your favourite place and why?

If your child has Special Educational Needs or a Disability you can get information support and advice from Camden via this website www.sendiasscamden.co.uk The Service aims to help parents/carers, children and young people and professional staff to work together to provide the best possible support to children and young people with SEND. The service is free and confidential. Hope you find it useful

Our prayer...

May I see you in the people around me, and welcome you with a warm heart.

Help me to listen to your message of love and peace: The Good News which you came to share with our world. Amen

Amen

Spanish phrase of the week...

This week's phrase is Quiero un helado de fresa which means I would like a strawberry ice-cream.

Work of the week...

Every week a fantastic piece of children's work is showcased in the school lobby (next to the office).

This week Christina Dawit's (Y1) brilliant retelling of the traditional story Goldilocks and the Three Bears was chosen. She has written her letters and words very carefully. She has used capital letters and full stops to make her writing easy to read and she's also included lots of fabulous adjectives to describe characters and events.

Well done Christina!
